issues. Dr Wagner said he has no issues except the there are no services for children at poverty level and below. Jody Verplanke reported they are ok with the on/call at the hospital. Sheriff Odenbach reported they are working well with the jail, Tyler is doing a great job but the response time to Kaycee is unacceptable. Chief Jason Carder has no complaints but is concerned about Tyler getting burned out. County Attorney Tucker Ruby said they need help and intervention with Drug Court locally; leaving half way through the meeting or skyping in is not acceptable. In response to Susan Carr's request for a timeline of when Buffalo & Kaycee could expect full service, Paul stated once they develop an implementation plan it could be 6 months to a year out; which when fully implemented would be a total of three therapists and a county manager. He assured the Commissioners and public attending Johnson County is a priority.
