

Johnson County Emergency Management
Immediate Press Release
March 26, 2020
9:00am

We have received official confirmation from the state that Johnson County has one positive case. The patient is an adult male; the Wyoming Department of Health has directed him and his immediate companions to isolate at home. The Wyoming Department of Health will follow up with those who may have been in contact with the individual whose case has been confirmed.

We have been expecting Covid-19 to reach our county, and we have been preparing. Please visit our website for the latest information from Johnson County's Emergency Operations Center: www.johnsoncountywyoming.org/covid-19.
