COVID-19 Status

- Wyoming has 153 confirmed cases. This figure includes 37 documented recoveries. Johnson County has 8 confirmed cases; all patients are self-isolated at home.
- To date our county has received two shipments of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) from the Strategic National Stockpile (SNS) to help protect healthcare workers and other personnel in essential services who are in contact with the public.

THE WYOMING SUPREME COURT

The Wyoming Supreme Court has extended its COVID-19 Emergency Orders to May 31, 2020. This applies to three orders already in effect:

Order #1: Advise all District and Circuit Courts to suspend in-person proceedings, except in certain specified circumstances where required by law and the constitution. Judges are encouraged to use video or telephone conferencing to the extent possible, all civil trials should be rescheduled, and reasonable attempts should be made to reschedule all criminal trials, "subject to the requirement that defendants be provided speedy trials as required by law." In addition this order is amended to permit felony sentencing and evidentiary probation revocation proceedings to be conducted via video conferencing, if the defendant consents.

Order #2: Allow for remote administration of oaths and witnesses, verification of guilty pleas, and making most paper filings optional at the discretion of the court clerks.

Order #3: Lift the requirement of filing paper briefs in the Wyoming Supreme Court.
